NEWMARKET SAUSAGE SAFARI FESTIVAL WEEK

27th October to 2nd November 2025

In celebration of Newmarket's annual Sausage Festival on Saturday 1st November, some of our wonderful cafes and restaurants will be serving specially created sausage dishes on their menus during the preceding week. Meaning you could dine out on a different sausage dish every day of the week!

Check out the menus below:

Nancy's Tea Shop, Station Road, Newmarket
Newmarket sausages and creamy mashed potato with onion gravy.
Homemade chorizo quiche.

Victor Victoria Coffee, Palace Street, Newmarket
English Muffin with Powters sausage patty, fried egg, melted cheese and optional bacon.

The Tack Room, Palace Street, Newmarket
Bangers and Mash - onion gravy, creamy mash and savoy cabbage.

The Tack Box, Palace Street, Newmarket
The Tack Box Sausage Roll.

The Red Lion, Brinkley, Newmarket
Sausage and mash, with seasonal vegetables and gravy.
Sausage Roll.

Heath Court Hotel, Newmarket
Newmarket Sausage Casserole with creamy mash and crusty bread.
Musk's Sausage and Mash with onion gravy.
Musk's Banger Baguette.

Squires Restaurant, Bedford Lodge Hotel, Newmarket
Powters Chilli Pig Spanish Chorizo and Tomato Sausage, Butterbean and Suffolk Tomato Cassoulet, Saffron Emulsion, Onion Tuille.

In addition, Newmarket's independent wine merchants, Corney and Barrow, High Street, has selected two superb wines to accompany a variety of sausage dishes. Available in store, at a special discounted price during the Festival week.

Hawequas Mont Du Toit 2018, £16.95

Festival price £15.00

Perfect pairing for sausages, served in rich gravy or those with plenty of spice.

CAP au Sud Chardonnay Vin de France Francois Carillon 2021, £19.95

Festival price £17.50

A great match with spice or perfect with grilled and barbequed sausages.